

The result of our run in FY2002 shows a promising enhancement in the neutron spectrum.

In FY2002, the overhead before the physics run is not negligible and the allocated beam time is less than what we requested. Therefore, we requested the run in FY2003 and obtained this exciting result.